

Embassy of India, Berlin
(Economic & Commercial Section)

VISIT OF DR ASHOK DESAI TO BERLIN

COLLOQUIUM “INNOVATIONS-MANAGEMENT IN ECONOMY – RELEVANCE TO INDO-GERMAN BUSINESS CO-OPERATION”
ON 19TH JUNE 2006 AT EMBASSY OF INDIA, BERLIN

PROGRAMME
(1800 TO 2000 HRS)

- Brief introduction to the programme of the afternoon: Dr. Amal K. Mukhopadhyay (5 min)
- Welcome Address & Introductory Remarks by Mr. Deepak Ray, Consul General of India, Hamburg
- Innovations in Pharma/Biotech – Opportunities in Indo-German Co-operation : Dr. Amal K. Mukhopadhyay, Founder, Elga Biotech, Hamburg
- Venture Capital in support of innovations: relevance to Indian Economy : Mr. Erich Mayer, M/s Van Rooijen & Partner, London
- German FDI in India: Untapped Potential - Presentation by Ms. Jennifer Mund, Deutsche Bank Research Division, Frankfurt
- "How India's national innovative capacity looks from a distance: some results and questions from a Benchmarking exercise" – Presentation by Mr. Prof. Axel Werwatz, Head of the Innovation, Manufacturing, Service department of German Institute for Economic Research (DIW), Berlin.
- Introduction of Dr. Ashok Desai by Mr. Deepak Ray, Consul General of India, Hamburg
- Growth in Innovation as a sequelae to Liberalisation in Economy: India as a case Study : Dr. Ashok Desai
- Discussions

